

Name		Mir Afzal Khan
Dep.		Software Engg
Semester		3rd
Assignment # 1		Communication Skills
Submitted To		Dr Inam khan
words	Meaning in Urdu	Meaning in English	sentences
Abase		Behave in away that belittles	He abased himself before the king
Abate		Widespread	Storm has started to abate
Abdicate		A responsibility	The young prince become king after his older brother decide abdicate the throne
Abduct		Kidnap	Here is the picture of the women who tried abduct the millionaires young child
Aberration		A departure from what is normal	We consider our defeat to be an aberration ,since we easily beaten last season
Abet		Assist or courage	She abetted the thief in his getaway. Did he abet the commission of a crime
Abide		Accept	I don't need to abide by the rules
Abject		Of something bad	The poor surroundings caused abject misery
Abjure		Experienced a belief or claim	He was arrested, had to spend several months in prison and was forced to abjure his professorship
Balk		Hesitate	The horse balked and would not jump the fence
Balled		Squeeze	His fur was balled and dirty
Banal		So lacking in originality as to be obvious and boring	He doesn't like English poetry, he finds it very banal
Bane		Annoyance	My cruel teacher was the bane of my existence
Bard		A poet	Both royals and peasants gathered around the bard, listening carefully to his retelling of the famous Epic, the Odyssey
Bashful		Shy	He is rather bashful and refused to come out of his car for the photograph
Battery		A container consist of one or more cell	The battery charger plugs into any mains socket
Debunk		Hollowness	The article debunks the notion that life exists on Mars
Decorous		In keep with a good taste	His manner, as ever, was decorous.

Decry		Publicly denounce	He is impatient with those who decry the scheme
Deface		Spoil the surface	Don't deface library books
Defamatory		Damaging the good reputation of someone	The reader said that the report was defamatory
cacophony		A harsh discordant mixture of sound	We were greeted by a cacophony of sound as we entered the road
cadence		Flattery or inflection	The horse's breath made puffs of steam as she trotted along the road to the cadence of tinkling bells
Calamity		Sudden damage	Public calamity was added to private bereavement
calibrate		Mark with a standard scale	This thermometer is calibrated by centigrade
Callous		Showing an insensitive and cruel disregard for other	The man who stole from the poor was a callous thief
Calumny		Damage someone reputation	Calumny is answered best with silence
Camaraderie		Mutual friendship	There is camaraderie within the small groups
Candor		The quality of being open and honest	He was attracted to her because of the obvious candor in her character
Canny		Showing shrewdness	The people of that area are a canny and intelligent people
Debacle		A sudden failure	Many men were shot or captured in the debacle
Debase		Reduce something quality	They debased the value of the dollar
Debauch		Destroy the moral purity of someone	The young man's honesty was debauched by the prospect of easy money
Beguile		Charm	He beguiled the audience with his smooth and seductive voice
Behemoth		Monstrous creature	The city is a sprawling behemoth with no heart
Benevolent		Well meaning and kindly	He is always benevolent towards his countryman
Abnegation		The action of rejecting something	The sticking point in faith for me was abnegation
Abort		Carry out or undergo the abortion	The doctor had to abort the baby
Abridge		Shorten without losing the sense	The book was abridged for children
Abrogate		Evade	Those in power abrogated their responsibility
Abscond		Leave hurriedly and secretly	You can not abscond from your responsibilities
Absolution		Formal release from guilt	Penance accompanied by the judicial absolution of the priest makes a true sacrament

Abstain		Restrain oneself from doing or enjoying something	Next he must abstain from all flesh diet except fish
Abstruse		Difficult to understand	He had the imagination that invested with personal being and ethical qualities the most abstruse notions.
Accede		Agree to demand	The senior command did not accede to these requests
Accentuate		Make more noticeable	He looked elegant in a light gray suit that accentuated his dark tan
Benign		Gentle and kindly	My quarry is rather less benign
Bequeath		Leave to a person or other by will	to give or leave by means of a will I bequeath this ring to my sister
Berate		Scold or criticized someone	As he left the meeting, he was berated by angry demonstrators
Bereft		Lacking	he is still bereft of confidence when he approaches the net
Beseech		Ask urgently to do something	I beseech you to make the argument for yourselves
Bias		Inclination for against someone	She has a strong musical bias
Bilk		Obtain or withhold money from unfairly	He bilked us of all our money
Blandish		Coax with kind words	They cook simple, blandish food
Blemish		A small mark or flaw which spoil the appearance	A mole is a blemish on a person's skin
Blight		A plant disease	This discriminatory policy has really been a blight on America
Fickle		Changing frequently, especially as regards ones loyalty	The moon is a fickle lover, like a beautiful woman
Figurative		Departing from a literal use of words	He imprisoned her, in a figurative sense
Flabbergasted		Greatly surprised	Never, have I seen a person so flabbergasted , so stunned
Flaccid		Soft and hanging loosely or limply	His face was childlike and flaccid
Flagrant		Conspicuously or obviously offensive	Telling the story was a flagrant breach of trust
Flout		Openly disregard	Some companies flout the rules and employ children as young as seven
Foil		Prevent from succeeding	Milk bottle tops are made of tin foil
Forage		Search widely for food or provisions	He had to forage for firewood

Forestall		Prevent or obstruct by taking advance action	His comments were meant to forestall criticism of his proposal
Forlorn		Pitifully sad and abandoned or lonely	His face looked forlorn
Accessible		Able to be reached or entered	The museum is easily accessible by public transport
Acclaim		Publicly praised	He deserves the acclaim he has received
Accolade		An award granted as a special honour	It was the biggest accolade in the industry
Accommodating		Willing to fit in with someone wishes	They were kind enough to accommodate me with a ride to the train station
Accord		Give or grant someone	He decided to go of his own accord
Accost		Address boldly	A man had accosted me in the street
Accretion		Growth by the gradual accumulation additional layer	The fund was increased by the accretion of new shareholders
Acerbic		Sharp and forthright	The letter was written in her usual acerbic style
Acrimony		Ill feeling	Her response was surprisingly free of acrimony.
Assist		Help someone	This time, my sweet little friend will assist me
Boisterous		Noisy, energetic, and cheerful	A boisterous horse must have a rough bridle
Bombastic		High sounding but little meaning	He is best known for three rather bombastic poems
Boon		A thing that is helpful	You owe me a boon
Bourgeois		Middle class characteristic with reference to materialistic	They've become very bourgeois since they got married
Brazen		Bold and without shame	There were instances of brazen cheating in the exams
Brusque		Abrupt in speech or manners	His tone was brusque
Buffet		A meal consisting of several dishes	The dinner will be served buffet style
Banish		Send away from a country as an official punishment	The teacher had to banish all cellphones from the classroom because they distracted his students
Buttress		A source of defence or support	We emerge at the foot of a huge rocky buttress to delightful grassy pastures
Bionic		Having an artificial body part	His bionic enhancements allowed him to manipulate electric currents

[illegible]

[illegible]

[illegible]